

A GOOD TIME TO HIT HIM.

[Detroit Free Press.]

A school boy about ten years old was the other day halted by a benevolent-minded citizen on Second street and asked if he liked to go to school.

"No sir," was the prompt reply. "Then you don't love your teacher?"

"N—yes, sir. That is, I didn't until yesterday, but now I do. I think she's just bully."

"Why have you loved her since yesterday?"

"Well, you know Jack Cain? Well, he's the worst fighter in our room. He can lick me and two other boys with one hand tied behind him. Well he was going to lick me last night, and he was shaking his fist at me in school and showing his teeth and getting me all excited when the teacher saw him."

"Did, eh?"

"You bet she did; and the way she took him out of that and whooped him and humbled him down made me feel as if she were a mother to me! When school was out, Jack dashed to anybody. He was walked down, and when I hit him with a bunk of dirt he never even looked around. I guess I'm going to try and lick him in the morning, before he gets over feeling humble."

A showman from the United States purchased a circus that was on a tour in Mexico, and substituted the stars and stripes for the Mexican flag that had been flying from the tent pole. This was in Chihuahua, where the hatred of this country is intense. A mob undertook to haul down the new flag, but the manager and his performers drove them back. That night a regiment of local soldiery demolished the whole show, and the company were compelled to fly for their lives.

We have heard a young lady scream when her little brother threw his arms about her neck and say it tickled her almost to death, but we have seen a great big fellow throw his arms about the same young lady's neck, and yet she never complained, except when he removed his arms. This is one of the miss tickle things of this life.
